What is your role at Taureau Group, and how long have you been here?

I am the Marketing & Office Manager at Taureau Group and I joined the team almost a year ago. My role includes leading marketing strategies and initiatives, new business development campaigns and administration projects.

Before working at Taureau Group, what was the most unusual job you've ever had?

I wouldn't say it was all that unusual, but during my freshman year of college I worked as a janitor at a large commercial bank.

Describe the culture at Taureau Group.

The culture at Taureau Group is very entrepreneurial yet team oriented with a lot of collaboration and energy. Everyone works hard to obtain the best outcome for each of our clients, which definitely shows.

What's something about yourself that may surprise us?

I am fluent in French and spent over a year living abroad in Grenoble, France.

Where is your hometown?

Helena, MT

What is your favorite book, movie and type of music?

I enjoy reading classic fiction and biographies. However, my favorite books are cookbooks and I typically will make every recipe from each one I buy. I have yet to dislike anything from Danielle Walker.

I don't have an all-time favorite movie, but some top choices that I've seen dozens of times include The Shawshank Redemption, Christmas Vacation, Elf and The Goonies.

I listen to pretty much all genres of music (except heavy metal) and have everything from singer-songwriters to hip hop on my playlists.

What is your favorite quote?

"Life isn't about finding yourself. Life is about creating yourself." I love this quote as it tells us that life is about building it - whether it's through education, knowledge, determination, and experiences. We create the opportunities we have throughout our life.

What do you like to do in your free time?

I love traveling, cooking and spending as much time as possible outdoors, which typically includes running and biking. My daughter is a swimmer so a lot of my "free time" is spent driving to and from swim practices and attending swim meets.
